

HIRING AND TRAINING INCENTIVES FOR EMPLOYERS

Learn how you can take advantage of funding, programs, and federal tax incentives to help hire and train employees.

We can help your business by providing a wage subsidy to off-set training and payroll costs for a new employee. Depending on the individual you hire, they may be eligible for additional support to help keep them in their position.

New Hires

The Employer Incentive component of the Employment Services program is a wage subsidy program that encourages employers to hire eligible individuals to assist them with long-term employment opportunities and gain new skills relevant to the labour market.

Hire an apprentice

Learn about how to hire and train an apprentice and how it benefits you as an employer.

Canada-Ontario Job Grant

Receive money to help pay for the training of existing and new employees.

Hire a young person

Hire a youth between the ages of 15-29 through the Youth Job Connection, or Youth Job Connection Summer – see how these programs can benefit you as an employer and learn more about financial incentives for your business.
