

Workplace Terminology for General Labour Jobs

Essential English for Newcomers Working in Warehousing, Manufacturing & More Starting a general labour job in Canada?

Join us on June 26, 2025 from 3:30pm - 4:30pm for Join our free, beginner-friendly session to learn the most common workplace terms, instructions, and safety language used on the job.

Eligibility: Permanent Resident; Convention Refugee

To learn more, Rebecca Sarkis to register for this in-person session.

You Will Learn:

- Common job instructions (e.g., "lift carefully," "stack neatly," "check inventory")
- Names of tools, equipment, and materials
- Basic workplace safety vocabulary (e.g., PPE, hazard, report)
- Understanding schedules, breaks, and shift instructions
- How to ask for help or report problems on the job

 (226-350-5877)

 rsarkis@ncce1.org

 www.ncceinc.org

@ncceinc1

